

Hopkinsville Community College Foundation, Inc. $500 Atwood and Miles Textbook Scholarship Application Spring 2020

Who is eligible?

Any Hopkinsville Community College student, whose HOME CAMPUS is HCC and has enrolled in at least six (6) credit hours for Spring 2020 at HCC.

What must I do to be considered?

1. Complete the Hopkinsville Community College Foundation, Inc. Textbook Scholarship Application (this form).
2. Write an essay detailing your need for textbook scholarship assistance. The quality of your essay and explanation of your need and desire for support is weighed heavily by scholarship evaluators. Carefully consider the effort needed to write a compelling essay, and it is advised to attach the essay to the application so that you have adequate space to tell your story.
3. Submit the FAFSA including the HCC school code (001994)
4. Work with HCC's Financial Aid Office to complete the last page of the application.
5. A minimum of 2.0 cumulative GPA is required for consideration.
6. Return your completed application with essay to: HCC Financial Aid Office; either Hopkinsville North Drive Campus or English Army Education Center at Fort Campbell.
7. Incomplete applications will NOT be considered.
8. Evaluators consider many factors: student essay, financial need, GPA, number of credit hours completed, educational/vocational goals.

What is the deadline for submitting applications?

Friday, November 22, 2019 by noon

I plan to enroll at: _____ Ft. Campbell Campus
(please mark) _____ Hopkinsville (Main) Campus

FAQ's: How many awards will be made? Awards are made contingent on available funds

When will awards be available? Awards will be available for use at the HCC Barnes & Noble Bookstores as noted in awards communications (email and letter)

What if my financial aid is pending? If you are eligible for financial aid (Pell grants, etc.) awards may be made while your aid is pending. If an award is made from state or federal financial aid that results in an "over-award", HCC Financial Aid will provide the bookstore with a replacement voucher and the HCC Foundation may select another recipient. Financial need as indicated by FAFSA is NOT a requirement to receive the textbook scholarships.
